

Jacob Bautista

Jacob Bautista currently is working towards his BFA studio art degree in printmaking and painting from West Texas A and M university. He has been accepted to juried shows such as the WTAMU/AC faculty and student show for the past three years, juried by the art professors at W.T. and has received scholarships from said shows. Recently visited New York City, going to several gallery's that has inspired his current figurative work by exploring different styles of figures within the same work. Also within the last year attended the Southern Graphics International conference in Atlanta Georgia for printmaking.
